

Letter from Alexander Graham Bell to Mabel Hubbard Bell, April 28, 1900, with transcript

ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL TO MABEL (Hubbard) BELL Parker House, Boston.
Saturday, April 28, 1900. Dear little Mabel-San:

Note of 26th just received.

I DID.

What's the matter with telegram. Tried to telegraph a joke that was all. Enjoyed the "Antis!" (Antiquarians).

Just time to catch steamer. I hear by telephone that Prof. Newcomb is coming and that Mrs. Newcomb will stay in Harvard.

Must RUN — with much love to you and Daisy and etc. Au revoir.

Your loving, Alec.
